NEW BUSINESS

9.a. Receive Results of 2021 Community Survey

City Administrator Martin provided presentation highlighting the results of the 2021 Community Survey. A total of 2,700 randomly selected households in Rosemount receive an invitation to participate in the survey. 587 households completed the survey. 9 out of 10 residents called Rosemount an “excellent” or “good” place to live.

Staff will continue to receive citizen feedback by utilizing the Polco platform with short monthly surveys on specific topics. A community wide survey will be completed again in 2023 for staff and council to continually monitor progress and results. Results of surveys will be important when carrying out strategic planning.
